Who can participate?

This opportunity is designed for school personnel who are responsible for providing health education in the classroom. You may apply to join VCHE if you:

- are a health educator with a health endorsement, or
- have taken the on-line Health Education Standards and Assessment course offered through the Vermont Higher Education Collaborative, or
- have participated in the Health Education 101 workshops (offered by the Vermont Agency of Education annually since 2010), or
- work under a provisional license for health education

What can be expected from each session?

- In-person sessions will include some content delivery, some networking, some work time for immediate application
- On-line sessions and networking opportunities will occur via Vermont Education Exchange
- Each member will be paired up with a “peer mentor” for deeper connections, learning and processing opportunities

When/where will sessions be held?

- All in-person sessions will be held in central Vermont (Montpelier or Randolph).
- Webinars and Vermont Education Exchange opportunities are all on-line

What is the cost?

No attendance costs for VCHE members!
